PRESENTING

WOODWARD'S

SAGA of WAR

We, the Saga Staff, sincerely dedicate this book to the Crusade for Freedom.

The Crusade for Freedom:
begun during the childhood of the world; carried on through the ages; and destined to continue to the end of man.

The Crusade for Freedom:
a valuable and worthwhile movement; sought at sometime in history by all nations.

The Crusade for Freedom:
the hope of oppressed peoples; the enemy of those who seek to conquer; and the guiding light of all free nations.

Truly, the Crusade for Freedom is all this and much more. May it live on until each man on the face of God's earth shall reap of its blessings.

"I CANNOT THINK OF THEM AS DEAD"

I cannot think of them as dead
  Who walk with me no more;
Along the path of life I tread,
  They have but gone before.

The Father's house is mansioned fair
  Beyond my vision dim;
All souls are His, and here or there
  Are living unto Him.

And still their silent ministry
  Within my heart hath place;
As when on earth they walked with me
  And met me face to face.

Their lives are forever mine,
  What they to me have been;
Hath left henceforth its seal and sign
  Engraven deep within.

Mine are they by an ownership
  Nor time nor death can free;
For God hath given love to keep
  Its own eternally.

By Frederick Lucian Hosmer

Woodward is highly honored and pleased with the great success and accomplishments of one of its former students. We speak of none other than Danny Thomas, well known T. V. comedian and humanitarian. Recently, because of his work in both fields, the story of his life was televised nationally on the "This is Your Life" show, on which W. F. Rohr, a member of our faculty, was presented as a part of Danny's past. The pictures on this page show scenes from the telecast. May we say in all sincerity, "God bless you, Danny, and may success be yours in all you do."
